

CELEBRATINGRE

... exploring values and beliefs for tomorrow's world

A month long celebration of religious education in England and Wales in March 2011

Celebrating RE month aims to:

- provide a showcase for enjoyable and relevant religious education with pupils of all abilities and age groups
- celebrate RE and its contribution to the education and personal development of all pupils and to society at large
- strengthen links between RE and local, regional and national faith communities
- connect RE professionals nationwide and encourage the sharing of good practice to foster lasting relationships between sectors, teachers and the wider RE community
- raise public awareness of RE's distinctive and positive contribution to society and social cohesion
- develop and maintain a strong presence for RE in the online community and news media
- promote imaginative examples of exploring questions of meaning, purpose and moral responsibility
- encourage creativity and excellence in RE, and
- highlight the excellent work that teachers, pupils and communities in England and Wales are already doing by shining the spotlight on the subject for a whole month

www.celebratingre.org

Visit www.celebratingre.org to:

- register your interest and receive free updates on events and developments
- share information about the events you are planning in your school and community
- find out how to enter competitions with an amazing array of RE prizes
- be inspired by the ideas and projects being developed by teachers across England and Wales for early years, primary, secondary, special, gifted and talented pupils
- look at events being planned by schools, faith communities, SACREs, libraries, museums and other interested parties
- find easy to access resources that you can use in your own school, and
- promote good RE teaching in your local authority, diocese or region

www.celebratingre.org